AMERICANS LOSE LIVES WHEN ANCONA IS SUNK

Serious Complications With Austria May Arise Over Destruction of Huge Liner and Death of 300 Persons — Germans Claim Liner Endeavored to Escape — If Americans Lost Lives, United States Will Seek Full Reparation.

By Associated Press.

Washington, November 10.—(Bul-letin)—Two Italian-Americans sailed from Naples on the steamship Ancona, according to a dispatch to the State Department today from Consul White. One of them was Mrs. Francesca Lamura.

Consul White cabled it was verbally reported in Naples that 270 persons had been saved.

The consul's dispatch said the other lost American citizen was an infant child.

Washington, November 10.—The news of the sinking of the Ancona created a sensation in official circles here.

It was reported that the submarine was flying an Austrian flag.

Should it develop that Americans aboard lost their lives and that the steamer was torpedoed without warning, the American government would demand of the Austrian government disavowal of the act, reparation and assurances that there will be no repetition of the incident.

Secretary Lansing indicated today that the United States would wait a reasonable time for an official report of the sinking, but that if word is not received within a reasonable time, the department will inquire into the affair through the embassy at Rome.

Berlin, wireless to Sayville, L. I., November 10.—A defeat for the French and British troops in southern Serbia, with losses which are described as enormous, are reported from Sofia by way of Budapest.

According to this information, the battle occurred between Krivokat and Prilep. The allies made violent attacks upon defensive positions of the Bulgarians.

In addition to heavy losses in killed or wounded of the allies, it is reported a large number of British troops were captured.

London, November 10.—Premier Asquith, in the House of Commons, today foreshadowed the establishment of an Anglo-French war council, in which French and British ministers would sit.

He expressed the hope that Russia and Italy would join in the council.

London, November 10.—French forces have re-captured the town of Veles, in southern Serbia, from the Bulgarians, according to advices received by the Serbian legation in Athens.

boats, with 54 members of the crew, landed there.

Some of the men were injured, the message stated.

New York, November 10.—No word concerning the sinking of the Ancona had been received early today by the local agents of the Italian line. It was thought the censorship was holding back dispatches.

Of the total of 642 persons on board, 324 have been accounted for. Some few Americans are reported to have been on board.

The ship, scheduled to sail from Naples for New York, was believed to have been attacked near the coast of Tunis, as survivors were landed at Bizerta, east of Cape Bon.

The agents here said the vessel did not carry munitions, nor had it been used as a transport.

By Associated Press.

London, November 10.—Premier Asquith was expected to ask the House of Commons today for a vote of credit of 400,000,000 pounds sterling ($2,000,000,000).

This will make the total amount voted for war purposes in the current year 1,300,000,000 pounds ($6,600,000,000).

With the amount voted in the financial year of 1914-15, the sum allotted for war, including the new vote of credit, will reach the aggregate of $8,310,000,000.

U. S. EMPLOYEE IS FORCED OUT

By Associated Press.

Washington, November 10.—M. Deleva, a Belgian employed by the United States as consular to the legation at Brussels, has left Belgium and will not return to his post because Germany has given notice that he is persona non grata.

The State Department will not admit that Deleva has been removed, but announced today he had left Belgium and will not return.

Whether his unacceptability to Germany came about through the activity of the American legation staff in the case of Miss Edith Cavell, is not made clear at the State Department, although there are some intimations that it might have been.

BETHLEHEM STEEL PLANT IS BURNED

Mammoth Plant Engaged in Filling War Orders Burns to Ground Early This Morning, and Loss May Exceed $10,000,000—Mystery Surrounds Origin of Fire—800 Big Guns Are Worthless.

By Associated Press.

South Bethlehem, Pa., November 10.—Fire early today completely destroyed the No. 4 machine shop of the Bethlehem Steel Company.

Only the skeleton of the big building is standing. Machinery and war materials in the building were said to be worth millions of dollars.

How the fire started is not known. It was discovered in what is known as the boring mills section of the plant, among a quantity of oil.

The fire spread rapidly, and soon the entire building was wrapped in flames. The fire department of the steel plant was called into action, as well as the departments from four neighboring towns, but their efforts were mainly devoted to saving adjoining property.

The value of the guns alone, in the shop is said to be several million dollars.

There were about 1,000 machines, of different kinds, in the building, worth from four hundred to several thousand dollars each, and it is estimated the value of the machinery was several million dollars.

The burned shop was 250 feet wide, 700 feet long and four stories high. On these four floors 2050 men were employed in day and night shifts.

About 800 men were at work when the fire started, and so rapidly did it spread that many employees had to make their escape by ropes from the different floors.

From workmen it was learned the fire started in oil near the entrance. The oil flows in conduits and is used to gather flying chips, in gun boring.

There was only a spark at first, and workmen started to put it out by throwing water. Then following a mighty flash, and flames as high as the structure seemed to envelop the whole building.

As the fire ate its way through the building, floor after floor, loaded down with machinery, collapsed and fell.

The burned building was built and equipped recently, at a cost said to be $3,000,000. It was used for the manufacture of guns for England and her allies and the United States.

Some 800 of the guns were being made when the fire broke out. The fire is said to have resulted from a spark from an electric light lamp which exploded.

SHOCKS WILSON'S FRIENDS

Washington, Nov. 10.—Friends of President Wilson expressed concern over a passage in a speech credited to Congressman Sherwood of Ohio before the Central Labor Union of Toledo. General Sherwood, who is against the administration's program of preparedness, is reported to have said: "A distinguished citizen told me that President Wilson is not strongly in favor of this war preparedness, but that he has endorsed it because he believes the American people want it. If organized labor were to protest, the president would not support the scheme."

The suggestion that the president is recommending something to congress not because he believes in it, but because he believes it may be politically expedient to do so, is an insinuation at which the friends of the president balk. They are anxious to know the name of the "distinguished citizen" who thus indicted the president for insincerity.

GIRL ATTACKS YOUNG LOVER IN COURT ROOM

Corsicana, Tex., Nov. 10.—Before a throng of men and women, who crowded the circuit court here to hear the sordid details of her love affair, Miss Alma Morgan shot and perhaps fatally wounded Allen Godley, charged with being the father of her child. The trial had just been adjourned until February and Godley was talking with his attorneys in front of the judge's bench. Miss Morgan, with her baby in her arms, approached, "Allen, here's your baby," she said, holding the child toward him. Without a word Godley turned his back on the girl and walked away. Miss Morgan's face paled and, fumbling in a handbag, she jerked out a revolver and fired. Godley pitched on his face and in an instant the room was in an uproar. The bullet struck Godley at the base of the neck. Miss Morgan was taken into custody.

BRYAN BOOK IS EXCLUDED FROM MAIIS

San Francisco, Nov. 10.—William J. Bryan's latest book, "British Rule in India," which has been given a wide circulation in its recent peace propaganda, has been ordered excluded from the mails in India. The widespread revolt of the Hindus against British rule is attributed in part to this book. Bryan's book, an arraignment of the British government in India, is based on personal investigations there some years ago. Bryan charges that the British, with the aid of the native princes, have been exploiting the people to the extent of driving millions of the Hindus into famine every year. The book was translated into the vernacular by Yungantar Ashram under the title "Anan Di Gawai."

After sending many copies of the pamphlet to India from here, Ram Chandra, editor of the Hindu Garad, received notice from Postmaster Fay that the pamphlet had been excluded from the mails in India.

150,000 DOGS ESCAPE TAX

The dog tax collections in Ohio are treated as of minor consideration, and in some counties both listing and collecting are incomplete and unsatisfactory. That the tax on dogs is an important source of revenue is shown by the reports from the eighty-eight counties, just received by the Auditor of State. The total collections of dog tax in Ohio the past year was $233,790.24, or an increase of $13,786.78 over the previous year.

Vast as are the total collections of dog tax, only about half the dogs in Ohio are at present paid for. Every one familiar with the present methods of listing dogs knows that there are many thousands of dogs that are not listed. Not only this, but the past year $62,258.76 listed was not paid. Under the present laws it is a waste of time to list at least one-third of the dogs in the state. If every dog in Ohio were paid for as provided by law, the receipts the past year would have been over four hundred thousand dollars instead of $233,790.24.

The present general assembly made a general revision of the dog tax laws and inserted stringent provisions that made certain either an annual addition of at least a quarter of a million dollars to the dog tax fund or the destruction of 150,000 dogs in Ohio on which no taxes are being paid. This act required the collection of the dog tax by the assessor and the issuance to the owner of a metal tag containing the words "Dog tax paid," and provided that such tag must be worn by the dog.

CORN HUSKING IS WELL UNDER WAY

Corn husking in Fayette county is well under way with hundreds of farmers busy from dawn to set of sun endeavoring to complete the work of harvesting the corn before the severe winter weather opens.

For several weeks there had been no rain and the result was that corn husking was made very disagreeable. However the recent rain did much to relieve the situation.

Corn being received at the elevators in this city is of fair quality, although there are many imperfect ears.

Happy Days

Everybody's happy with an Estate Oak in the household; seems as though this stove has a way all its own of making firm friends of the family.

"Ma" likes it 'cause it's such a gentlemanly stove to have 'round the house; no dirt—no smoke—no puffing—ever. ¶ Tickles "Pa", too, 'cause it has such a small appetite; once or twice a day is often enough to feed it, and soft coal is its favorite food. ¶ Of course Willie's strong for it. The Estate Oak saves him a good many trips to the coal bin, and a whole lot of luggin' ashes, too.

Fact of the matter is,

Railroads and Advertising

Because of the immense amount of business done by them in a year, because of the great scope of territory covered by them, the armies of employees, the almost numberless items of expenditures, large and small and other reasons too numerous to mention, people have generally accredited the management of the great railroad corporations of the land with possessing a rather superior business system, an intimate knowledge of business conditions and a sort of sixth sense in being able to determine just what are good and what are bad business propositions.

Statistics of receipts and expenditures of railroad corporations are generally conceded to be reliable barometers of business conditions.

We look first for the coming of a period of business stagnation to the condition of the railroad companies and at the same source returning prosperity and business activities first manifests itself.

People generally have grown to believe that it is good policy to watch the management of the big railroad companies as a guide by which their own business may be conducted.

With that feeling existing everywhere it is particularly worth while to mention the fact that the great railroads of this country paid out for advertising in the newspapers and magazines last year, in round figures, ten millions of dollars.

That fact is proof positive—the very best evidence obtainable of two important facts. The business men who control and manage the great common carriers realize that newspaper and magazine advertising is the very best result producing advertising that can be done. In the next place they realize that no business is such a monopoly that judicious and liberal advertising will not increase receipts.

If there is an exclusive business in this land its the railroad business. People must ride and they must ship freight and seldom do the railroads compete with each other in the same field.

But the railroad managers believe in advertising in the newspapers and magazines. If they didn't believe in it they wouldn't spend ten million dollars a year for that purpose.

Railroad companies do not spend money foolishly and they do not spend it unnecessarily. Every dollar paid out must bring its return in profit.

A higher testimonial to the value of advertising could not be penned than the cold statistics telling the story of railroad expenditures for advertising.

The Young Man's Chance

Every young man starting out in life, on his own account, should appreciate the importance of making his service valuable to his employers.

Too many young men make the mistake, when starting out in life, of confining their efforts to a scale which they feel equal to the salary paid. Naturally enough the ambitious, self respecting, well behaved young man has quite an exalted idea of his own importance and the value of his services and that wholesome self esteem stands him in hand so long as he lives up to it and gives free rein to his inclination to do things.

Employers will not be long in ascertaining that the services of a young man are valuable and will be glad to boost his salary to a figure equal to his real earning capacity. If, as is once in a great while the case, an employer is found who doesn't appreciate good service when it is given to him, then there are plenty of others who will bid for real service.

First of all, however, the young man must prove his worth. It is a mistake to expect the merchant or the manufacturer to begin at once, without a trial, paying a young man the salary he thinks he is worth.

The minute a young man comes to the conclusion that he is not receiving enough salary and acting upon that conclusion, restrains his inclination to work—only doing the work he is compelled to do or doing only an amount of work which he feels is a fair return for the money paid him, then he is not likely to make much progress.

The young man who is seeing things to do and doing them, with no thought of whether he is doing more than his salary requires of him, is the one who succeeds.

He is the young man whose services cannot be dispensed with—he is the young man who succeeds and who is able to command the big salaries.

Every young man can make himself a winner if he wants to do so.

Poetry For Today

THE RHODORA.

On being asked, whence is the flower?
In May, when sea winds pierced our solitudes,
I found the fresh Rhodora in the woods,
Spreading its leafless bloom in a damp nook,
To please the desert and the sluggish brook.
The purple petals, fallen in the pool,
Made the black water with their beauty gay;
Here might the redbird come his plumes to cool,
And court the flower that cheapens his array.
Rhodora, if the sages ask thee why
This charm is wasted on the earth and sky,
Tell them, dear, that if eyes were made for seeing,
Then Beauty is its own excuse for being;
Why thou wert there, O rival of the rose!

I never thought to ask. I never knew;

But, in my simple ignorance, suppose

The self-same Power that brought me there brought you.

—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

What "Garbler" Once Meant.

"Garble," "garbled," "garbler," are words which nowadays convey quite a different meaning from that which was formerly accepted. "Garble" originally signified simply "to select for a purpose." At one time there was an officer, termed "the garbler of spices," whose duty it was to visit the shops and examine the spices, ordering the destruction of all impure goods. His duties were similar to those of the inspector of the modern health department, who forbids the sale of decayed vegetables or tainted meat. The word comes from a root meaning "to sift." The impurities sifted out have in the course of generations corrupted the term till a "garbled report" is no longer a report wherefrom all uncertainty has been removed, but one that is full of misrepresentation and made misleading with deliberate intent.

Merger of All War Relief Societies Under One Banner.

New York, Nov. 10.—An endowment fund of $100,000,000, a membership consisting of every man, woman and child in the United States with an annual membership fee of $1.50, and a merger of all the war relief societies under its banner—this is the goal toward which the American Red Cross aspires.

The program was announced at a meeting at the home of Mrs. Whitelaw Reid here. The speakers were General Leonard Wood, commander of the department of the east; Miss Mabel Boardman, secretary of the Red Cross; Dr. Charles F. Stokes, former surgeon general, United States navy, and former President William H. Taft, whom President Wilson has just made chairman of the central committee of the Red Cross. Joseph Choate presided.

General Wood said the Red Cross, which was the "big brother of the army and navy," ought to have the backing and substantial help of the government. "The Red Cross should call on the government to formulate a plan of co-operation," he said. "The least the government can do is to receive and store the supplies of the Red Cross. The army and navy are the cutting edge of the knife, but the Red Cross is the steel that gives the backing."

"We should have $100,000,000," said Miss Boardman. "The Carnegie and the Rockefeller foundations each have a fund of that size, why not the Red Cross? This should become the strongest organization in the United States and should have as members every individual in the country, each paying $1.50 a year."

ONE HUNDRED NEW MEMBERS ARE OBTAINED

The big drive of the Dutch Treat Club for new members for the Y. M. C. A. during Tuesday resulted in an even 100 new members being added to the institution, bringing the total membership up to about 370.

Reports were made by the various captains at a chicken pie supper held in the dining room of the institution at six o'clock Tuesday evening, when it was found they had obtained 96 new members, and the additional four were quickly added.

Not only did the two score workers obtain 100 members in the one day, but they decided that inasmuch as the bid "drive" failed to bring in the 200 sought, that "trench warfare" would be adopted until Monday evening, when all will meet once more and hope to report the additional 100 members.

Many of the men related experiences of the day around the supper table. One man told how a party of seven, out looking for "game" espied a butcher and all entered the shop. Diplomacy was adopted to "land" the butcher as a member. One man ordered a steak and the other six followed suit, and as the final steak was wrapped up and paid for, one of the seven tendered a blank membership card, saying "Sign right here." With a broad smile upon his face the butcher informed the seven steak-buyers that he had, some fifteen minutes previously, given his membership to another party of workers.

The men worked with a will, and will continue during the next few days to "camp on the trail" of prospective members.

Capt. Hitchcock's team reported the largest number of members, having obtained 21. Capt. Worthington came next with 19 members; Capt. Fite reported 14; Capt. Brownell 12; Capt. Murphy 12; Capt. Griffis 11; Capt. Merriweather 8; Capt. McFadden 5.

J. R. MARSHALL FUNERAL SERVICES

Simple but impressive funeral services for the late J. R. Marshall were conducted Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock at the residence on Washington avenue, Rev. P. J. Hennessy and Rev. John L. Dalbey officiating.

Miss Edith Gardner sang effectively. "Sometime We'll Understand" and the hymn, "Rock of Ages" was read.

Rev. Hennessy made a beautiful and singularly appropriate address and Rev. Dalbey offered an impressive prayer.

The home was filled with friends of the deceased and family coming from a distance, and lovely flowers offered the fragrance of remembrance. Among the special designs was a double casket spray of chrysanthemums from the Ritter Lumber Co., of Columbus, and wreath of chrysanthemums and roses from the Herald Publishing Company.

The burial was made in the family lot in the Washington cemetery, the pallbearers, Hon. A. R. Creamer, Messrs John H. Culhan, T. J. Lindsey, Wm. Waddell, Nye Gregg and W. R. Dalbey.

In 1867 he left New York State and located in Hillsboro, Ohio, where he purchased the Hillsboro Gazette which he published for fourteen years. He then went to Springfield, Ohio, where he published The Sunday News for four years.

In 1885 he came to this city, where he published the Ohio State Register until 1899, when he sold the paper and accepted the position of traveling representative of a manufacturing company, thinking the change would be beneficial to his health. But his failing health in 1910 compelled him to retire from active business.

Mr. Marshall was a man of an impulsive and generous disposition, staunch and true to his friends, ready at all times to do a favor or extend a helping hand without thought of inconvenience or cost to himself, and he will long be remembered by his friends whom he has left behind.

An invalid for the last five years and during the last ten months of his life almost literally helpless. During all his devoted wife who was his companion and helper for more than fifty years of wedded life, proved herself capable and willing to meet every demand and measured up to the high ideals of the young man who had won her heart over half a century ago. The three children with loving kindness and consideration, joined with the wife and mother in ministering to every need and complying with every request within their power to grant, repaying in a measure, the many acts of kindness and indulgence which they had in years gone received from him. Surrounded by his loved ones the last chapter of his life was closed, and those who loved him best of all have the ever enduring consolation which those loving ministrations in his behalf alone can give.

PLEADS GUILTY DRAWS $50 FINE

So far only one person, John Elder, proprietor of the East Court street pool room raided by Mayor Coffey and Patrolman Bell Saturday night, has faced Mayor Coffey to plead to a charge of gambling.

Elder was charged with permitting a game of craps in a public place of which he was proprietor, and upon his plea of guilty, was fined $50 and the costs, paid $35 and to pay the remainder at a later date.

Owing to the lack of evidence and the stout denial of others who are said to have been in the place at the time of the raid, no further charges are expected to be filed, and the affair apparently is at an end.

YOUNG MAN LOSES FIGHT FOR LIFE

Alonzo W. Swift, aged 20 years, who was operated upon at the Fayette hospital, some eight days ago, for a very serious case of appendicitis, died Wednesday morning at 12:20, after making a vain effort for life. His condition from the first was grave, owing to the aggravated nature of the attack from which he suffered.

The young man was a son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Swift, wealthy farmer of southwestern Fayette. He leaves a brother, Clyde, and two sisters, Mrs. John McCoy and Miss Galena.

Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at two o'clock at White Oak Chapel, and interment will be made in the Leesburg cemetery.

In Social Circles

The Browning Club met Tuesday evening, in charge of the department of science and philanthropy, vice-president Mrs. Martha Mark presiding. A vote of thanks was given by the club for the delightful entertainment of the last meeting. During the business session the resignation of Mrs. Bay, secretary, was received with regret; Mrs. Mary Burgett appointed in her place.

A message from the State Board of Health in regard to the Red Cross Seals was presented.

Mrs. Rowe had the program in charge. Mrs. Wm. B. Gage gave the first paper, the topic "The Conservation of our Natural Resources—Trees." A theme particularly appropriate for the state of virgin forests where in early days roamed the native Indian and where now the question comes, cannot definite programs of public education be instituted leading to the preservation of the grand old oaks and maples, whose tinged leaves in the autumn time are our admiration and joy.

The Browning Club could engage in no better work. Students planted three million trees in New York and observed Arbor Day all the year round.

Mrs. Bennett E. Kelley gave pleasure in two piano numbers, a brilliant interpretation of "Lucia de Lamemore" and as an encore "Pastarole."

Miss Ella Hess took up the development of "The Public Library" in a most interesting way. The library of today is result even of centuries before the 18th, when the movement began for a time of reformation and Benjamin Franklin gave it a great impetus. Philadelphia's public library is mother of all subscription libraries. In Toronto, Canada is a special library camp for soldiers.

Libraries with slides and views are now in China and Alaska. The Panama exhibits of libraries was something wonderful.

A most delightful affair was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Davis, south of town, in honor of a bride and bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Davis (nee Gretel Dailey) the groom being a brother of the former.

Quite a number of friends gathered for an elegant dinner.

The table was most artistically decorated with pink and white and a five-course menu was served.

Seated at the table with the bride and bridegroom were: Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Cockerill, Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Wilson, Mr. Robert Terrell, Miss Garnette Dailey, Mrs. Sadie Trump and Mrs. Nina Porter.

An enjoyable feature was a pretty toast made to the young couple by Mrs. Herbert Cockerill. Congratulations are extended to them by friends throughout the county.

Mrs. D. G. Waters of the Creek road, underwent a grave operation at the Fayette Hospital Wednesday afternoon. Dr. Drury was called from Columbus in the case.

Mrs. H. L. Stitt, Miss Edith Hamm and Miss Urcey Stitt, of Bloomingburg, attended the Powell concert in Columbus Tuesday night.

Mrs. Sharp-Davies returned Tuesday night from Delaware, where she visited Prof. Davies during the past week.

Mrs. Ethel Liman, of Detroit, Mich., is spending several weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hare, of Buena Vista.

Mrs. Martha Vesey of Greenfield is visiting Mrs. J. M. Willis.

Mrs. Henry Deafner of Greenfield, is spending the week with her daughter, Mrs. Clarence Craig.

Mrs. Wm. Hammer is the guest of her daughter, Miss Wilmah Hammer, in Columbus for a couple of days, having accompanied her older daughter Miss Georgia Hammer, who returned to her home in Detroit, Mich. that far.

Mr. James Logan of Waverly is spending a couple of days in this city looking after business interests.

Mrs. P. J. Henness is slowly improving after a ten days' illness at her home on Washington avenue.

Miss Jean Howat is the guest of Mrs. Nolan Hathaway in Columbus to attend the Maude Powell concert given under the auspices of the Women's Club. Miss Elizabeth Johnson joined Miss Howat Tuesday night to attend the concert.

Mrs. T. Cartwright of Wilmington spent Tuesday here to attend the funeral of Mr. J. R. Marshall.

Misses Leora and Ethel Eakins had as their guests the first of the week, Misses Juanita Rowe, Hazel Patton, Messrs. Foster Wilke and Elza Geller.

Mr. and Mrs. Buxton (nee Laura Weaver) who were the guests of Miss Marie Hegler for "Fi-Fi" returned to their home in Johnstown, O. Tuesday evening.

"The Girl on the Cover" Advises "Movie-Stricken" Women and Girls—Also Discusses Movie Wardrobes

Miss Edith Johnson who herewith writes her own story of motion picture experiences has developed within the past few years into one of the most versatile of movie stars. Before her debut in the movies, Miss Johnson was known as "the girl on the cover," her pretty face adorning the outside covers of many popular magazines.—Ed.

By EDITH JOHNSON
There really was nothing exciting about my entering motion pictures. I just wanted to get into the work and I applied to the Selig company because I enjoyed their artistic productions. I surely was surprised when I received word that I would be given a trial, for I had feared that my ambition would never be satisfied.

I had been working for a Philadelphia Company posing for illustrations which appeared on the covers of their advertising booklets. When I received word from Mr. Selig that an opportunity to enter motion picture work awaited me, I took the first train for the West and arrived as soon as possible in Los Angeles where the great studios of the Selig Company are located.

I have found it is so much easier for the men who pose for the camera to dress than the women that it almost seems unjust at times. One of the things which keeps me busy night after night in my home is planning new dresses to wear in forthcoming productions. It may surprise many to know that when an actress wears the same dress in two or three productions she is certain to receive a number of letters commenting on the fact. It is necessary therefore to change every gown in some manner after it has been worn in a few scenes in a motion picture play.

The work is harder than posing for cover subjects and there is a great deal of art connected with the work despite certain contrary statements. After several years with the Selig Company, during which I have been cast for more and more important roles, I can look back and easily notice the advancement I have made in both experience and conception of motion picture art. I fear I would have been lost when I started my engagement with the Selig Company if I had not had some previous dramatic experience, but even in my schooldays I was fond of amateur theatricals and frequently appeared in them, and this experience proved very valuable indeed.

There are many hazards encountered in the course of motion picture production, but an actress gets used to that quickly and it becomes matter of course—a part of her daily life. I have got so that I consider the wild beasts at the Selig Jungle-Zoo as pets rather than ferocious animals and I am told that if I feared them I would never be able to work in scenes with them. They are really like little children and one must humor them continually in order to keep them in the best of spirits.

There is one thing I feel it my duty to discuss here and I hope all the girls who read my story will profit by my experience. This is my advice to the hundreds of girls in all parts of the world who continually write to me asking if there are opportunities for them to become motion picture actresses. Some of these epistles come from very young girls, too—girls who should be thinking of their school work and not of the theater.

SWISS DIVORCE CASES.

The Court Always Tries to Settle Them by Reconciliation.

In one important respect the Swiss surpass other nations in the management of their divorce cases, says an English correspondent.

In every town there is a kind of official paper known as the Feuille d'Avis, in which one may read daily the following announcement:

"M. and Mme. X., who are in instance of divorce, are requested to appear privately before the judge, alone or with their lawyers, in order to come to a reconciliation if possible."

Before the beginning of every divorce case in Switzerland this notice is published and sent out to the interested parties, leaving the couple, of course, free to attend before the judge or not, as they wish. Often the couple meet.

Although there are no statistics published on the subject, I am told by a leading lawyer in Geneva whose specialty is divorce cases that at least 30 per cent of divorce cases—"much to my loss, unfortunately," the lawyer added, with a smile—are settled by the paternal advice of the judge at these meetings out of court.

In fact, Swiss lawyers will not definitely take up a divorce case until it has passed through the reconciliation process.

If one of the couple does not attend the rendezvous this means that the affair is to be fought out, but in any case Swiss divorces are not expensive.—San Francisco Chronicle.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a solid but easy laxative and their effect on the body is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets.

These pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids.

It is best not to take calomel, but to let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Most headaches, "biliousness" and that lousy feeling come from constipation and a clogged liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lousy" and "heavy." Note how they "clear" clouded brain and bow bow. May "perk up" the spirit. At 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

The Olive Tablet Company, Columbus, O.

REVIVAL IS ON IN GREENFIELD OIL VESSEL IS ON FIRE

Greenfield, O., Nov. 10.—(Special to Herald)—The evangelistic campaign under the leadership of the Stevens-Storri party is well under way. An immense tabernacle, seating twenty-five hundred has been erected on the vacant lot just in the rear of the First Presbyterian church. This was entirely filled Sunday evening, that being the first meeting held there. A large chorus choir of three hundred voices leads the singing.

The outlook for a genuine revival is very encouraging, and overflow meetings are being arranged for, as it seems assured that the tabernacle will prove too small to accommodate the throngs who will attend the meetings.

POLITICAL SKIES BECOMING CLEAR

Chairman Jones Not a Candidate For Governor.

ISSUES SHORT STATEMENT

Former Governor Herrick, Who Will Support Burton, Announces His Candidacy For Delegate-at-Large to the Republican National Convention—Former Chairman Daugherty and the United States Senatorship.

Columbus, Nov. 10.—Chairman Edwin Jones of the Republican state executive committee announces he will not be a candidate for governor of Ohio against Governor Willis.

He admits that he is being urged by friends to become a candidate for the senatorial nomination. He would not discuss this proposition, however. It was Chairman Jones' intention to have been a candidate for governor had not Governor Willis sought re-nomination.

Chairman Jones said he believed that the governor should follow generally the recommendations of the state and county committees and the party leaders in making appointments.

That ex-Senator Burton is to have the support of Myron T. Herrick was disclosed when Colonel Herrick announced his endorsement of Burton for president and his intention to be a candidate for selection as one of the four delegates-at-large to the national convention.

Harry M. Daugherty, referring to the senatorship, said: "As to the United States senatorship, I did not ask either Senator Burton or Governor Willis to support me. The senatorship naturally was discussed by many of the gentlemen who came from over the state. I have no anxiety as to the result of a contest, if there should be one for that office."

Governor Willis' present visit to Cincinnati, while primarily to address business men's organizations and to be the guest of the chamber of commerce, is expected to be intertwined with consultations with Republican leaders.

GIRL ATTACKS YOUNG LOVER IN COURT ROOM

Circleville, Tex., Nov. 10.—Before a throng of men and women, who crowded the circuit court here to hear the sordid details of her love affair, Miss Alma Morgan shot and perhaps fatally wounded Allen Godley, charged with being the father of her child. The trial had just been adjourned until February and Godley was talking with his attorneys in front of the judge's bench. Miss Morgan, with her baby in her arms, approached "Allen, here's your baby," she said, holding the child toward him. Without a word Godley turned his back on the girl and walked away. Miss Morgan's face paled and, fumbling in a handbag, she jerked out a revolver and fired. Godley pitched on his face and in an instant the room was in uproar. The bullet struck Godley at the base of the neck. Miss Morgan was taken into custody.

BRYAN BOOK IS EXCLUDED FROM MAILED

San Francisco, Nov. 10.—William Bryan's latest book, "British Rule in India," which has been given a wide circulation in his recent peace propaganda, has been ordered excluded from the mails in India. The widespread revolt of the Hindus against British rule is attributed in part to this book. Bryan's book, an arraignment of the British government in India, is based on personal investigations there some years ago. Bryan charges that the British, with the aid of the native princes, have been exploiting the people to the extent of driving millions of the Hindus into famine every year. The book was translated into the vernacular by Yogi Ashram under the title "Aanjan Di Gawanai."

After sending many copies of the pamphlet to India from here, Ram Chandra, editor of the Hindu Garad, received notice from Postmaster Fay that the pamphlet had been excluded from the mails in India.

150,000 DOGS ESCAPE TAX

The dog tax collections in Ohio are treated as of minor consideration, and in some counties both listing and collecting are incomplete and unsatisfactory. That the tax on dogs is an important source of revenue is shown by the reports from the eighty-eight counties, just received by the Auditor of State. The total collections of dog tax in Ohio the past year was $233,790.24, or an increase of $13,786.78 over the previous year.

Vast as are the total collections of dog tax, only about half the dogs in Ohio are at present paid for. Every one familiar with the present methods of listing dogs knows that there are many thousands of dogs that are not listed. Not only this, but the past year $62,258.76 listed was not paid. Under the present laws it is a waste of time to list at least one-third of the dogs in the state. If every dog in Ohio were paid for as provided by law, the receipts the past year would have been over four hundred thousand dollars instead of $233,790.24.

The present general assembly made a general revision of the dog tax laws and inserted stringent provisions that made certain either an annual addition of at least a quarter of a million dollars to the dog tax fund or the destruction of 150,000 dogs in Ohio on which no taxes are being paid. This act required the collection of the dog tax by the assessor and the issuance to the owner of a metal tag containing the words "Dog tax paid," and provided that such tag must be worn by the dog.

CORN HUSKING IS WELL UNDER WAY

Corn husking in Fayette county is well under way with hundreds of farmers busy from dawn to set of sun endeavoring to complete the work of harvesting the corn before the severe winter weather opens.

For several weeks there had been no rain and the result was that corn husking was made very disagreeable. However the recent rain did much to relieve the situation.

Corn being received at the elevators in this city is of fair quality, although there are many imperfect ears.

BLOOD THE SEAT OF DISEASE

An eminent authority on nervous diseases has announced that the blood is the seat of all disease. How important, therefore, that it be kept in a pure, healthy condition. For this purpose our local druggists, Blackmer & Tanquary, guarantee Vinol because it is a combination of the three most successful tonics known, iron in its most soluble form, the medicinal extractives of fresh cod livers, without oil, and the nourishing properties of beef peptone. Can you imagine anything better?

BLAMES WOMAN

Pittsburgh, Nov. 10.—William Stanley Ayers, the young chauffeur who eloped from Syracuse, N. Y., with Mrs. Frederick E. Foster, wife of a business man, several days ago, was given a hearing here on a charge of false pretenses. Ayers when remanded by Magistrate Sweeney for "stealing another man's wife," declared Mrs. Ayers was to blame. Ayers was remanded to jail. Ayers has a wife and child in Albany.

Happy Days

Everybody's happy with an Estate Oak in the house; seems as though this stove has a way all its own of making firm friends of the family.

"Ma" likes it 'cause it's such a gentlemanly stove to have 'round the house; no dirt—no smoke—no puffing—ever. "Tickles 'Pa", too, 'cause it has such a small appetite; once or twice a day is often enough to feed it, and soft coal is its favorite food. Of course Willie's strong for it. The Estate Oak saves him a good many trips to the coal bin, and a whole lot of luggin' ashes, too.

Fact of the matter is, an will keep going for more than fifty hours on only one charge of soft coal, and without any other attention than to empty the ash-pan—say, once in twenty-four hours.

Railroads and Advertising

Because of the immense amount of business done by them in a year, because of the great scope of territory covered by them, the armies of employees, the almost numberless items of expenditures, large and small and other reasons too numerous to mention, people have generally accredited the management of the great railroad corporations of the land with possessing a rather superior business system, an intimate knowledge of business conditions and a sort of sixth sense in being able to determine just what are good and what are bad business propositions.

Statistics of receipts and expenditures of railroad corporations are generally conceded to be reliable barometers of business conditions.

We look first for the coming of a period of business stagnation to the condition of the railroad companies and at the same source returning prosperity and business activities first manifests itself.

People generally have grown to believe that it is good policy to watch the management of the big railroad companies as a guide by which their own business may be conducted.

With that feeling existing everywhere it is particularly worth while to mention the fact that the great railroads of this country paid out for advertising in the newspapers and magazines last year, in round figures, ten millions of dollars.

That fact is proof positive—the very best evidence obtainable of two important facts. The business men who control and manage the great common carriers realize that newspaper and magazine advertising is the very best result producing advertising that can be done. In the next place they realize that no business is such a monopoly that judicious and liberal advertising will not increase receipts.

If there is an exclusive business in this land its the railroad business. People must ride and they must ship freight and seldom do the railroads compete with each other in the same field.

But the railroad managers believe in advertising in the newspapers and magazines. If they didn't believe in it they wouldn't spend ten million dollars a year for that purpose.

Railroad companies do not spend money foolishly and they do not spend it unnecessarily. Every dollar paid out must bring its return in profit.

A higher testimonial to the value of advertising could not be penned than the cold statistics telling the story of railroad expenditures for advertising.

The Young Man's Chance

Every young man starting out in life, on his own account, should appreciate the importance of making his service valuable to his employers.

Too many young men make the mistake, when starting out in life, of confining their efforts to a scale which they feel equal to the salary paid. Naturally enough the ambitious, self respecting, well behaved young man has quite an exalted idea of his own importance and the value of his services and that wholesome self esteem stands him in hand so long as he lives up to it and gives free rein to his inclination to do things.

Employers will not be long in ascertaining that the services of a young man are valuable and will be glad to boost his salary to a figure equal to his real earning capacity. If, as is once in a great while the case, an employer is found who doesn't appreciate good service when it is given to him, then there are plenty of others who will bid for real service.

First of all, however, the young man must prove his worth. It is a mistake to expect the merchant or the manufacturer to begin at once, without a trial, paying a young man the salary he thinks he is worth.

The minute a young man comes to the conclusion that he is not receiving enough salary and acting upon that conclusion, restrains his inclination to work—only doing the work he is compelled to do or doing only an amount of work which he feels is a fair return for the money paid him, then he is not likely to make much much progress.

The young man who is seeing things to do and doing them, with no thought of whether he is doing more than his salary requires of him, is the one who succeeds.

He is the young man whose services cannot be dispensed with—he is the young man who succeeds and who is able to command the big salaries.

Every young man can make himself a winner if he wants to do so.

Poetry For Today

THE RHODORA.

On being asked, whence is the flower?
In May, when sea winds pierced our solitudes,

I found the fresh Rhodora in the woods,
Spreading its leafless bloom in a damp nook,

To please the desert and the sluggish brook.

The purple petals, fallen in the pool,
Made the black water with their beauty gay;

Here might the redbird come his plumes to cool,
And court the flower that cheapens his array.

Rhodora, if the sages ask thee why
This charm is wasted on the earth and sky,

Tell them, dear, that if eyes were made for seeing,

Then Beauty is its own excuse for being:

Why thou wert there, O rival of the rose!

I never thought to ask. I never knew;

But, in my simple ignorance, suppose

The self-same Power that brought me there brought you.

—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

What "Garbler" Once Meant.

"Garble," "garbled," "garbler," are words which nowadays convey quite a different meaning from that which was formerly accepted. "Garble" originally signified simply "to select for a purpose." At one time there was an officer termed "the garbler of spices," whose duty it was to visit the shops and examine the spices, ordering the destruction of all impure goods. His duties were similar to those of the inspector of the modern health department, who forbids the sale of decayed vegetables or tainted meat. The word comes from root meaning "to sift." The impurities sifted out have in the course of generations corrupted the term till a "garbled report" is no longer a report wherefrom all uncertainty has been removed, but one that is full of misrepresentation and made misleading with deliberate intent.

DAILY TIME TABLE

ONE HUNDRED NEW MEMBERS ARE OBTAINED

The big drive of the Dutch Treat Club for new members for the Y. M. C. A. during Tuesday resulted in an even 100 new members being added to the institution, bringing the total membership up to about 370.

Reports were made by the various captains at a chicken pie supper held in the dining room of the institution at six o'clock Tuesday evening, when it was found they had obtained 96 new members, and the additional four were quickly added.

Not only did the two score workers obtain 100 members in the one day, but they decided that inasmuch as the bid "drive" failed to bring in the 200 sought, that "french warfare" would be adopted until Monday evening, when all will meet once more and hope to report the additional 100 members.

Many of the men related experiences of the day around the supper table. One man told how a party of seven, out looking for "game" espied a butcher and all entered the shop. Diplomacy was adopted to "lend" the butcher as a member. One man ordered a steak and the other six followed suit, and as the final steak was wrapped up and paid for, one of the seven tendered a blank membership card, saying "Sign right here." With a broad smile upon his face the butcher informed the seven steak-buyers that he had, some fifteen minutes previously, given his membership to another party of workers.

The men worked with a will, and will continue during the next few days to "camp on the trail" of prospective members.

Capt. Hitchcock's team reported the largest number of members, having obtained 21. Capt. Worthington came next with 19 members; Capt. Fite reported 14; Capt. Brownell 12; Capt. Murphy 12; Capt. Griffis 11; Capt. Merriweather 8; Capt. McFadden 5.

J. R. MARSHALL FUNERAL SERVICES

Simple but impressive funeral services for the late J. R. Marshall were conducted Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock at the residence on Washington avenue, Rev. P. J. Hennessy and Rev. John L. Dalbey officiating.

Miss Edith Gardner sang effectively, "Sometime We'll Understand" and the hymn, "Rock of Ages" was read.

Rev. Hennessy made a beautiful and singularly appropriate address and Rev. Dalbey offered an impressive prayer.

The home was filled with friends of the deceased and family coming from a distance, and lovely flowers offered the fragrance of remembrance. Among the special designs was double casket spray of chrysanthemums from the Ritter Lumber Co., of Columbus, and wreath of chrysanthemums and roses from the Herald Publishing Company.

The burial was made in the family lot in the Washington cemetery, the pallbearers, Hon. A. R. Creamer, Messrs John H. Culhan, T. J. Lindsey, Wm. Waddell, Nye Gregg and W. R. Dalbey.

OBITUARY.

Jasper R. Marshall was born in Newark, Wayne County, New York, October 22d, 1843, and died at his residence on Washington avenue, this city, November 7th, 1915.

He was married to Sarah Louise Barnes at Albion, New York, July 19th, 1863. Six children were born to them, three dying in infancy. The surviving children are Miss Nellie Marshall, Mrs. Fred L. Wilson of South Solon, and Maurice Marshall. One brother, Wm. C. Marshall, of Norfolk, New York, and one sister, Mrs. Jennie Myers of Lockport, New York, survive him.

Mr. Marshall when quite a young boy was apprenticed to the printer's trade, which he learned so thoroughly that but few could equal him in the mechanical part of that profession.

In 1867 he left New York State and located in Hillsboro, Ohio, where he purchased the Hillsboro Gazette which he published for fourteen years. He then went to Springfield, Ohio, where he published The Sunday News for four years.

In 1885 he came to this city, where he published the Ohio State Register until 1899, when he sold the paper and accepted the position of traveling representative of a manufacturing company, thinking the change would be beneficial to his health. But his failing health in 1910 compelled him to retire from active business.

Mr. Marshall was a man of an impulsive and generous disposition, staunch and true to his friends, ready at all times to do a favor or extend a helping hand without thought of inconvenience or cost to himself, and he will long be remembered by his friends whom he has left behind.

An invalid for the last five years and during the last ten months of his life almost literally helpless. During all his devoted wife who was his companion and helper for more than fifty years of wedded life, proved herself capable and willing to meet every demand and measured up to the high ideals of the young man who had won her heart over half a century ago. The three children with loving kindness and consideration, joined with the wife and mother in ministering to every need and complying with every request within their power to grant, repaying in a measure, the many acts of kindness and indulgence which they had in years gone received from him. Surrounded by his loved ones the last chapter of his life was closed, and those who loved him best of all have the ever enduring consolation which those loving ministrations in his behalf alone can give.

PLEADS GUILTY DRAWS $50 FINE

So far only one person, John Elder, proprietor of the East Court street pool room raided by Mayor Coffey and Patrolman Bell Saturday night, has faced Mayor Coffey to plead to a charge of gambling.

Elder was charged with permitting a game of craps in a public place of which he was proprietor, and upon his plea of guilty, was fined $50 and the costs, paid $35 and is to pay the remainder at a later date.

Owing to the lack of evidence and the stout denial of others who are said to have been in the place at the time of the raid, no further charges are expected to be filed, and the affair apparently is at an end.

YOUNG MAN LOSES FIGHT FOR LIFE

Alonzo W. Swift, aged 20 years, who was operated upon at the Fayette hospital, some eight days ago, for a very serious case of appendicitis, died Wednesday morning at 12:30, after making a vain effort for life. His condition from the first was grave, owing to the aggravated nature of the attack from which he suffered.

The young man was a son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Swift, wealthy farmer of southwestern Fayette. He leaves a brother, Clyde, and two sisters, Mrs. John McCoy and Miss Galena.

Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at two o'clock at White Oak Chapel, and interment will be made in the Leesburg cemetery.

ENGLE PROPERTY IS TO BE SOLD

A decree has been handed down in the common pleas court in the case of Rush Engle against Harry Engle in which partition of 7.16 acres of land in Concord township, was asked. The land is appraised at $1650 and as the premises cannot be divided by meters and bounds without injuring the premises, it is ordered sold.

In the sale of the property it is specified that a stratum of gravel, eight feet in thickness above water and of unknown depths below the water level underlies the premises.

A NIGHT OUT.

Doors 7:30. Curtain 8:15

The way the shells knock things down in the war zone, human muscles developed in digging trenches will be useful to put the piles of brick and stone back where they were before the war.

Somewhere, pro or con, in the preparedness problem must belong the example of the deadlock between the German and British navies, facing and scowling and shirking fight, but where?

After the novelty is worn off from this national defense business it will probably resolve itself into the old dispute as to whose turn it is to go to the front and dig trenches.

Outlawry in Scotland.

The unusual sentence of outlawry recently pronounced by the Scottish courts is a relic of the days before extradition existed. For it was the usual punishment of those who wilfully avoided the execution of legal process and was inflicted upon the criminal who fled the country and could not be brought back. In the old days to be outlawed—in the case of women they called it waived—meant that one could be knocked on the head by any passerby, and outlaws in fact were said to be caput lupinum—that is, they had a wolf's head and could be treated as a wild beast.—London Mail.

That New York truck driver with an opera voice and style might well exchange jobs with some so called singers now superfluous on the stage.

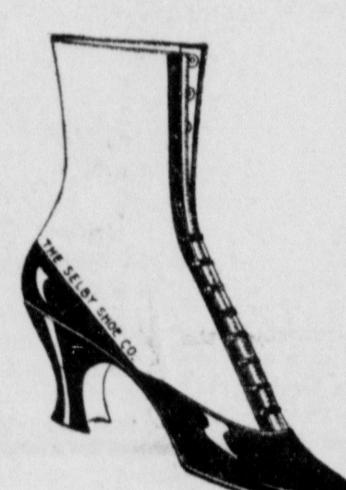

Apple pie is an institution which never needs an introduction, a revival nor a higher up certificate that it is the kind mother used to make.

A year hence we will not be able to see anything so relatively unimportant as a world war until election is over and the votes counted.

The public spirited citizen who is worrying over national preparedness can set a good example by looking to his own coal bin.

In Social Circles

The Browning Club met Tuesday evening, in charge of the department of science and philanthropy, vice-president Mrs. Martha Mark presiding. A vote of thanks was given by the club for the delightful entertainment of the last meeting. During the business session the resignation of Mrs. Bay, secretary, was received with regret; Mrs. Mary Burgett appointed in her place.

A message from the State Board of Health in regard to the Red Cross Seals was presented.

Mrs. Rowe had the program in charge. Mrs. Wm. B. Gage gave the first paper, the topic "The Conservation of our Natural Resources—Trees." A theme particularly appropriate for the state of virgin forests where in early days roamed the native Indian and where now the question comes, cannot definite programs of public education be instituted leading to the preservation of the grand old oaks and maples, whose tinted leaves in the autumn time are our admiration and joy.

The Browning Club could engage in no better work. Students planted three million trees in New York and observed Arbor Day all the year round.

Mrs. Bennett E. Kelley gave pleasure in two piano numbers, a brilliant interpretation of "Lucia de Lammoore" and as an encore "Pastarole."

M. E. CONFERENCE AT JEFFERSONVILLE FULL OF INTEREST

EARLY CLUBS IN AMERICA.

The First One Was Founded in Philadelphia In 1717.

The two earliest clubs in America, according to Colonel Henry Watterson in his "History of Manhattan Club," were the Fish House club of Philadelphia, founded in 1717, and the Hoboken Turtle club of New York, which was started in 1797. Then came the Sons of Liberty and the Sons of St. Tammany, which originated in the brain of one William Mooney, an upholsterer of 23 Nassau street.

The Sons of St. Tammany, Colonel Watterson finds, were so called after an Indian chief in derision of England's patron, St. George, and one of their main objects was not, as some have supposed in the case of the Tammany organization, to put good Democrats into every job that paid anything, but "to arouse anti-British feeling and to disseminate knowledge concerning the principles of true political liberty."

The Sons of St. Tammany, later the Society of St. Tammany, was opposed to all trends of aristocracy, and it counted as its natural enemy the Society of the Cincinnati, whose membership was originally designed to pass down by inheritance.

The first club of New York founded on the lines of the London social institutions was the Union, in 1836.

It has been officially announced that over 3,000 games of football were on the list for the season ending on Thanksgiving day. This is a record and argues, in the opinion of football authorities, that the public finds the game attractive. Under the new rules it is a game which, like baseball, can be followed and understood by the layman. As now played it is a game of skill and muscles combined rather than a tossle of brute strength.

Bulgars Conducting Energetic Offensive In Serbia.

TEUTONS ALSO ADVANCING

French and British Forces in the South and Montenegrins in the West Conducting a Vigorous Campaign—Sharp Fighting in the West and On the Italian Front—Von Hindenburg Scores in the East.

London, Nov. 10.—Every hour adds to the peril of the Serbian armies which are fighting hard to hold back the Teutons pressing them from the north and the Bulgarians invading their country from the east.

Dispatches received here state that the Bulgarians have extended their grip on the Belgrade-Salonica railway north and south of Nish, and have occupied Leskovac, south of the captured capital, and Alexsinac, to the north. At the latter point they are in close touch with the German army, which, after occupying Grusevac, extended its left wing as far as Djunis, on the left bank of the Bulgar Moava.

The Austro-Germans, advancing southward, are making progress, except in the west, where they are being held by the Montenegrins. The invading forces are now reaching the most difficult part of Serbia, the mountainous region. There the natives, knowing every hill and gully, can offer the strongest resistance. The Austrians and Germans, however, are plentifully supplied with mountain guns, with which they expect to drive the defenders from their fastnesses.

Field Marshal Von Hindenburg's forces fighting for the approaches to Dvinsk, after being hard pressed by the Russians for several weeks, have apparently resumed the offensive. The German war office reports the capture of several hundred Russian prisoners in recapturing a trench in the Teutonic first line near the important railway city.

In the south, the ever-growing strength of the French and British forces is beginning to tell. They are carrying on an energetic offensive against the Bulgars; have managed to keep the railway clear as far as Veles and are barring the Bulgars' route to Monastir.

While it will be some time before the Germans can sufficiently repair the northern end of the railway for the transport of troops and munitions, their successes have enabled them to send supplies to the Bulgarians and Turks by the Danube as far as Nikopolis, from which point they can be sent by rail to Sofia and Constantinople.

The campaigns on the other fronts continue without any important changes. The Russians are still attacking in the north and south and are commencing to harass the German forces in the center, which, it is believed, has been weakened for the purpose of strengthening the two wings. No big movement is expected, however, until the condition of the ground improves.

In both the west and on the Italian front there has been considerable fighting.

SEND KITCHENER TO SAVE EGYPT

English War Secretary Has Important Mission.

WOULD QUELL UPRISING

Trouble Said to Have Resulted From the Deposition of the Nizam of Hyderabad, Loyal Supporter of the British, by His Own People—Egypt Also to Be Visited by the English Secretary For War.

Washington, Nov. 10.—War Secretary Kitchener's ultimate mission during his mysterious absence from the British war office is said by confidential information received here to be India, where, according to the same information, British rule is confronted with a more serious state of unrest than has generally been known outside of British official circles.

The trouble in India in its present form is said to have resulted from the deposition of the Nizam of Hyderabad by his people. This head of the most important station of India distinguished himself at the outset of the war by pledging all his treasure to the support of the British government and declaring it to be the duty of all Mohammedans to aid the British empire.

STATE MILITIA MAY GET CASH

Washington, Nov. 10.—The administration will throw no obstacle in the way of a bill that will be offered in the house by Representative Hay of Virginia, chairman of the military committee, providing pay for enlisted men and officers in the state militia organizations. It is the present purpose of Mr. Hay to provide in his bill that enlisted men shall be paid $50 a year and officers increased amounts, according to rank. The German influences are credited with being responsible for the increased tension in India.

It is represented that Lord Kitchener's trip to India is to be prefaced probably by a visit to the Balkans, and also to Egypt. Military men are of the opinion that if Kitchener and the British government thought it advisable for him to leave London to go anywhere at the present juncture he could probably be of the most service in the Balkans.

The reports of serious differences in India—none of which are permitted to come through regular channels on account of the British censorship—were regarded as most interesting here because of the question they raise in connection with Japan. It has been a much discussed question whether Japan, in the event of a mutiny in India of such proportions as to threaten British rule, would send troops to India to suppress the revolt. The subject was much in the air a year ago, when reports of rebellion in India were more frequent than they have been in recent months.

At the Japanese embassy the opinion was expressed that under the treaty between Great Britain and Japan the latter would be bound to furnish troops if called upon for duty in India or Egypt. The embassy, however, had no advices on the situation in India. Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, the British ambassador, is at Ottawa paying a visit to the governor general of Canada. At the embassy it was said no new advices had been received to throw light on the situation.

measure, it is understood, will have strong support throughout the country. It is believed that its enactment would result soon in an increase in the organized militia from 129,000, its present strength, to about 250,000 men.

Governor Willis in his address made a plea for participation of business men in politics. Senator Harding in his speech declared he would do all in his power for the Ohio river.

The estimated area sown in sugar beets is 9 per cent greater for 1916 than for 1915, when 227,885 tons were produced.

This year 206,619 tons of alfalfa were grown in Ohio, averaging 3.4 tons per acre in three cuttings.

BRITISH PREDICT VICTORY ASQUITH AND OTHERS ATTEND BANQUET

Predict Ultimate Victory For the Allied Forces.

London, Nov. 10.—Supreme confidence in the ultimate victory of the allies was voiced at the annual banquet of the Lord Mayor of London, celebrated in Guild hall. Premier Asquith struck the keynote when he said: "Be the journey long or short, we shall not falter nor pause until we have secured for the smaller states of Europe their charter of independence and for Europe itself its final emancipation from a reign of force."

All the city officials and many members of the government and diplomatic representatives attended the banquet which followed the inaugural ceremonies at which Sir Charles Cheers Wakefield was installed as lord mayor.

Arthur Balfour, first lord of the admiralty, in his speech, reminded his hearers that the whole strategy of the allies was based upon the allied fleets. Never was there a war in which dramatic incidents connected with allied fleets were fewer; never was there a war in which the operations of the allied fleets were more essential to the land forces. Their fortunes would have been very different from what they were, and what they were going to be, had it not been for the fact that the allies from the first moment took command of the seas.

"The Girl on the Cover" Advises "Movie-Stricken" Women and Girls—Also Discusses Movie Wardrobes

Miss Edith Johnson who herewith writes her own story of motion picture experiences has developed within the past few years into one of the most versatile of movie stars. Before her debut in the movies, Miss Johnson was known as "the girl on the cover," her pretty face adorning the outside covers of many popular magazines.—Ed.

By EDITH JOHNSON

There really was nothing exciting about my entering motion pictures. I just wanted to get into the work and I applied to the Selig company because I enjoyed their artistic productions. I surely was surprised when I received word that I would be given a trial, for I had feared that my ambition would never be satisfied.

I had been working for a Philadelphia Company posing for illustrations which appeared on the covers of their advertising booklets. When I received word from Mr. Selig that an opportunity to enter motion picture work awaited me, I took the first train for the West and arrived as soon as possible in Los Angeles where the great studios of the Selig Company are located.

I have found it is so much easier for the men who pose for the camera to dress than the women that it almost seems unjust at times. One of the things which keeps me busy night after night in my home is planning new dresses to wear in forthcoming

The belligerents berate Uncle Sam's views on neutrality, invade his sea rights and are jealous of his vantage ground of aloofness, but when they want first aid in cash, et cetera, they are on their knees with apologies and promises.

A New York city judge has decided that a baby has a right to cry anywhere, everywhere. The decision is highly significant in New York, but the rest of the country never included babies in the anti-noise embargo.

REVIVAL IS ON IN GREENFIELD

Greenfield, O., Nov. 10.—(Special to Herald)—The evangelistic campaign under the leadership of the Stephens-Storrs party is well underway. An immense tabernacle, seating twenty-five hundred has been erected on the vacant lot just in the rear of the First Presbyterian church. This was entirely filled Sunday evening, that being the first meeting held there. A large chorus choir of three hundred voices leads the singing.

The outlook for a genuine revival is very encouraging, and overflow meetings are being arranged for, as it seems assured that the tabernacle will prove too small to accommodate the throngs who will attend the meetings.

CLINTON MAN IS INSTANTLY KILLED

Joe Jackman, an inmate of the Clinton County Infirmary, was instantly killed in Wilmington, Tuesday afternoon, when an automobile owned by Chas. Stoltz of New Antioch and driven by his sister-in-law, Miss Florence Fenner, struck him.

Miss Fenner was in no way to blame for the accident, as Jackman stepped directly in the path of the machine without warning.

SAVAGE ATHLETICS.

Canary Islanders Who Would Have Made Star Ball Players.

The Canary Islands came into subsection to Spain about the time Columbus discovered America. The conquest was due solely to the superiority of European weapons and not to better skill and prowess. Native soldiers were trained athletes developed under a system that held athletic sports to be an important business, like military drill. Spanish chronicles have left accounts of sports of the islanders. From boyhood they were trained to be brisk in self defense. As soon as they could toddle the children were pelted with mud balls that they might learn how to protect themselves. When they were boys stones and wooden darts were substituted for bits of clay.

In this rough school they acquired the rudiments of warfare which enabled them during their wars to catch in their hands the arrows shot from their enemies' crossbows.

After the conquest of the Canaries a native of the islands was seen at Seville who for a silver piece let a man throw at him as many stones as he pleased from a distance of eight paces. Without moving his left foot he avoided every stone.

Another native used to defy any one to hurl an orange at him with so great rapidity that he could not catch it.

Three men tried this, each with a dozen oranges, and the islander caught every orange.

As a further test he hit his antagonists with each of the oranges.

FIFTH WHEELS.

They Are of Many Varieties, and Some of Them Are Human.

I am what is known as a fifth wheel—a useless piece of paraphernalia carried along as necessary impedimenta on other people's journeys.

There are lots of fifth wheels in the world. Some are old and rusty and out of repair, and down in their innmost hubs they long to roll off into the gutter and lie there quiet and undisturbed. These are the old people, silver haired, self effacing, who go upstairs to bed early when guests are invited for dinner.

Some are emergency fifth wheels, such as are carried on motorcars, always ready to take their place on the road if one of the regular wheels breaks down and needs to be sent away for repairs. These are the middle aged unmarried aunts and cousins-stanch, reliable—who are sent for to take care of the children while mother runs over to Europe for a holiday.

And some are fifth wheels like myself—neither old nor self effacing, neither middle aged nor useful, but simply expensive to keep painted and very hungry for the road. It may be only a matter of time, however, when I shall be middle aged and useful and later old and self effacing; when I shall stay and take care of the children and go upstairs early when young people are having a party.—Olive Higgins Prouty in American Magazine.

Disenchanted.

There is a maiden lady in Boston who used to be very fond of Omar Khayyam. She quoted the Rubaiyat on all possible and some impossible occasions as though it were her Bible. But a short time ago she went to the play, "Omar, the Tentmaker," in order that she might see her favorite hero in propria persona. But instead of being pleased with the play she came home disgusted. Her copy of the Rubaiyat (limited edition, numbered copy, Holland paper, vellum binding, Vedder illustrations) has been burned or buried. She neither mentions Omar nor allows any one else to quote him in her presence. When asked the reason of her change of taste she replies gently, but firmly, "I didn't know he was a drinking man."—Independent.

Children.

What are children? Flowers! They are flowers of the invisible world, indestructible, each with a multitude of angels and evil spirits underneath its leaves, toiling and wrestling for dominion over it. Blossoms! They are the blossoms of another world whose fruitage is angels and archangels. Or dewdrops! They are dewdrops that have their source not in the chambers of the earth nor among the vapors of the sky, which the next breath of wind or the next flash of sunshine may dry up for ever, but among the everlasting fountains and inexhaustible reservoirs of mercy and love.—John Neal.

Quickness of Mind.

Quickness is among the least of the mind's properties and belongs to her in almost her lowest state. Nay, it doth not abandon her when she is driven from her home, when she is wandering and insane. The mad often retain it, the liar has it, the cheat has it, education does not give it, and reflection takes away from it.—Landor.
